

"WORTH IT!"

SONG CONTEST

The BEAT and Project WORTH are holding a song contest! We are looking for the best Hip Hop or R&B song that delivers a positive, healthy message about sex--one that helps young people make good decisions for themselves.

We are looking for a song that delivers a powerful message for young people that ABSTINENCE (waiting and not having sex) is best, and that people who have sex should USE PROTECTION to prevent STDs and unplanned pregnancy. Every young person should know that they are WORTH IT!

Entries will be judged on creativity, artistry, and how well they promote healthy decision-making among youth. Entries must be received by The BEAT (1777 NE Loop 410, 4th Floor, San Antonio, TX 78217) by 5 PM Friday, April 23. Finalists will be chosen by a panel from Project WORTH and The BEAT. Finalists will perform at the Teen Health and Career Fair on Saturday, May 8, 2-5 PM at South Park Mall. The winner will be chosen at the Fair by a panel of judges.

The GRAND PRIZE, a $200 Gift Certificate, will be awarded for the winning entry. Entry tapes and discs will become property of Project WORTH. Project WORTH will have (non-exclusive) rights to the song to promote good decisions and Project WORTH activities.
